Business Consulting

Free, confidential, one-on-one consulting provides our clients with practical solutions to business problems. Our clients utilize numerous resources and seek guidance in areas like:

- Business plan assistance
- Financial projection development
- Cash flow analysis
- Marketing plan & marketing research development
- Capital & financing resources
- Inventory control procedures
- Product cost analysis and pricing
- Advertising & sales strategies
- Selling to the government/procurement
- Startup assistance
- Buying or selling a business/transition planning

“The help that our KSBDC connection gave us was vital to our preparation to go to banks and seek the financing we needed. Helping us put together our financial projections gave us the credibility that made a difference when we met with the banker.”

*Kim and Gavin Unruh, owners
EmbroidMe
Dodge City, KS*

Starting a Business

Many Kansans dream of starting a business but discover that the process can be daunting. Since our inception in 1983, KSBDC consultants have assisted over 84,000 Kansans as they take their first steps towards opening a business and then throughout the life of the business. Our consultants can help expedite the startup process and improve your success by alerting you to common mistakes.

“Whatever I need, the KSBDC staff is there to support me. Whether I need advice on a business loan, help with store layout, merchandising and display or any business related quandary they have been there to help along the way.”

*Elizabeth Demas, owner
The Avon Store
Overland Park, KS*

Maintaining/Expanding Your Business

Whether your business is facing a major challenge, contemplating an expansion, or simply interested in another opinion, KSBDC consultants are here to help. Your consultant will work closely with you to develop and implement intelligent solutions. While you will work primarily with one KSBDC consultant, you will have access to the expertise of the entire network of consultants.

Workshops/Seminars

The KSBDC uses a unique model of service delivery. Our centers are hosted by economic development organizations and educational institutions, all working together to provide options and flexibility in obtaining entrepreneurship training. Programs include basic business skills as well as advanced and specific business management topics. Please visit our website for additional information, www.kansas.gov/ksbdc.

Giving & Sponsorship Opportunities

Your generous, tax-deductible gift to the Kansas SBDC Network via the FHSU Foundation helps us provide additional training for entrepreneurs. Sponsorship opportunities are also available for special events. Please contact the KSBDC State Administrative Office for additional information 785.296.6514 or donate online at <https://secure.fhsu.edu/foundation>. Fort Hays State University is the statewide host for the KSBDC.

Entrepreneurial Resources

The KSBDC Network utilizes a wide variety of resources to help small business owners obtain timely, detailed, and relevant information necessary to make sound business decisions. Your consultant will assist you in finding the appropriate resources and in understanding the information generated from your research.
